Les on the Line

Every soccer manager will tell you that nothing increases confidence like a good result or, even better, a string of good results.

Well, we go into today's game with confidence high after a run of four games without defeat.

The turning point came with that win at Darlington three weeks ago when we also held firm to keep a clean sheet. A derby day victory over Bolton - always a booster - has been followed by draws against Swansea City and Bradford City.

Against Swansea City I felt we were a little faded and below par, possibly due to the effort that had gone into the Bolton clash just three days earlier.

But we worked hard and got a result - a similar story at Valley Parade when we fought back from trailing at half-time to take a deserved point.

I must make a special mention of Colin Greenall who has come into the last three games and done a tremendous job. Colin's experience has been lacking from our defence for much of this campaign and he has steadied everything down.

This afternoon's opponents, Leyton Orient, have done really well to force themselves into a strong challenging position for promotion. It was a cracking game down at Brisbane Road earlier in the season although it didn't produce a goal. With a bit of luck today's clash will see the ball flying into the net - at the Orient end of course!

From the Boardroom

As a result of the steps taken to improve our communications we have received a very encouraging response.

In the past couple of weeks our officials, including Chairman Keith Leeming, Vice-chairman and major shareholder Malcolm Woodhouse and General Manager and Press Officer Paul Agnew, have taken part in a fans' meeting here at Deepdale and a radio programme and 'phone-in on BBC Radio Lancashire. This represents the starting point to what we hope will be a much-improved relationship with you our fans.

We appreciate that we cannot achieve everything overnight, but we do feel that a regular contact with supporters can only be for the good of all concerned.

Paul Agnew says: "As we have tried to emphasise, the need to involve the public with football clubs is more important now than ever before.

"Football has tended to be a touch deaf to the voice of the man on the terraces and, as a consequence, supporters have sometimes felt neglected and overlooked.

"Our aim is to foster a relationship, accept criticism and try to make positive moves.

"We will be in close contact with the newly-formed Independent Supporters Association and the Preston North End Official Supporters Club and more meetings will take place.

"If you have any suggestions on any topic connected to the club then please write in and let us know. We cannot promise to have the means to answer everything, but we will certainly go as far as we possibly can."

Played at Leeds Road, Huddersfield

Preston North End ventured into Yorkshire to be confronted by ex-colleague John Thomas. The pre-match warm up supervised by Mark Leather didn't do the trick as Preston North End were caught cold. Huddersfield Town fielded a strong side, they are pushing for promotion. After 10 minutes they won a left wing corner, Barnett swung the ball over and Chris Billy headed home, the applause from the "Natives" had hardly died when Thomas crossed for Gary Barnett to score with Bagnall helpless. Simon Burton looked the liveliest thing in a Preston North End shirt he fired in a blistering shot which Martin in the "Terriers" goal saved. The Preston North End defence looked uncomfortable with the home side running the show they fell further behind before the interval with goals from Thomas, a simple tap in and Johnson.

In the second half Huddersfield Town continued to dictate the play and Billy scored his second goal of the night to complete the scoring. Little was seen of Preston North End as an attacking force and when they did get forward poor crosses let them down. Defenders Siddall and Lambert never gave up with Burton turning in the best performance up front with very little support from midfield. The experience of the Yorkshiremen had been just too much for the young Preston North End side.

Refreshing the Memory with Mike Payne

Clapton Orient, Leyton Orient and Orient have all visited Deepdale over the years, although, of course, the name change does not alter the fact that it is indeed the same side from East London which has now played nearly 50 times against us. There have been 35 meetings in the last 30 years in Divisions two, three and four with Leyton Orient having the edge gaining 14 wins to our 10.

Their first visit here was as long ago as September the 7th 1912 when as Clapton Orient they won 1-0. After that we met them another 11 times in the 1920's before regular battles began again in the 1960's. We have been meeting each other ever since.

One game that springs to mind came in November 1964 when we triumphed 3-0 here at Deepdale. It was not a particularly good game but was memorable for a 25 yard scorcher from Howard Kendall. Just before that Alan Spavin had made it 1-0 and before the end Preston scored their third when Brian Godfrey's fast cross was headed past his own goalkeeper by David Webb. In the return at Brisbane Road a hotly disputed goal by Dennis Sorrell equalised Godfrey's clever long range chip. "At least five Orient players were offside, but what can you do? If you protest you get booked." That was Manager Jimmy Milne's after match comment. Alex Dawson did protest, and did get booked!

What made it worse, later on Harry Gregory lobbed Alan Kelly for the winner in a 2-1 victory. And then the goalkeeper had to be carried off with a broken collar bone, Dawson taking over in goal. But Orient could not take advantage and they had to be content with their lead.

A huge crowd attended the Preston v Orient match on 29th January 1972, 19,692 to be exact. Why, you may ask? Well, with all due respect, it had little to do with the fact that Orient were the visitors, more because tickets were available for the following week's FA Cup tie against Manchester United and anyone wanting one had to attend the match against the O's. The Orient side responded well to the big crowd though and snatched the lead when Micky Bullock netted following a terrific goalmouth scramble in the 37th minute. It took North End the whole of the second-half to break down a tough defence and find an equaliser. It was the 89th minute when Gerry Ingram latched onto a through ball by George Lyall to volley an unstoppable shot past Ray Goddard. The game marked the debut of the newly signed Dave Connor from Manchester City.

Another first for Preston also came against Orient the following season. It was in London and Preston were holding their hosts to a 1-1 scoreline. Barrie Fairbrother had given Orient the lead but a spectacular Neil Young strike had levelled the scores. At the interval Alan Tarbuck came off with concussion and Manager Alan Ball sent on Alex Bruce. The substitution proved a masterstroke as Brucie scored the winner in the 79th minute. It was his first goal in what turned out to be a tremendous career for North End. However the goal was not exactly a classic as Alex's after match quote underlines. He said, "I tried to get my head to Neil Young's corner only for their goalkeeper to catch it. Then suddenly he dropped the ball and it hit the back of my leg and went into the net. It was lucky but I didn't care how it went it, it was my first league goal."

Gerry Ingram — Scored P.N.E.'s last minute equaliser at Orient in 1972

There have been many other 'tales' from the Preston v Leyton Orient chapter of our history and hopefully there will be many more, starting with another victory today.

TRIVIA TIME

When Preston played Leyton Orient in September 1961 they hoped to have former England International Colin Grainger playing for them. But the proposed transfer fell through after the player and his wife refused to move from his Wakefield home. Obviously one that got away!

TRIVIA TIME

Alec Ashworth, Dave Connor, Mark Jones, Andy Murphy and Vernon Allatt all made their North End debuts against Leyton Orient.

TRIVIA TIME

Former Preston favourite Ricky Heppolette joined Orient in December 1972 for £60,000. Typically, on his first appearance against us after his move he made a goal for his new club.....only 40 seconds into the match!

On this day ..

The following is a selection of matches played by Preston North End on this date in years gone by.

1887 Home vs Corinthians (Friendly) won 3-1

1891 At Blackburn vs Darwen (Lancs. Cup Semi-Final) lost 1-2

1898 Away at Third Lanark (Friendly) lost 0-3

1903 Home vs Manchester Utd (League) won 3-1

1923 Away at Fleetwood (Friendly) drew 1-1

1925 Home vs Arsenal (League) won 2-0

1936 Home vs Liverpool (League) won 3-1

1959 Home vs Aston Villa (League) won 4-2

1966 Home vs Charlton Athletic (League) drew 3-3

1981 Away at Cardiff City (League) won 3-1

Bob Holmes, the Preston born "Old Invincible" played for the Football League vs Scottish League exactly 100 years ago today.

The first league game we played on this date was against Manchester United back in 1903, the season they changed their name from Newton Heath. We beat them four times that season, twice in the league, once in the Lancs. Cup and another in a friendly.

On this day in 1953 we drew 1-1 with the Wolves in front of a 35,788 gate here at Deepdale. We finished runners-up to Arsenal that season with Wolves just one place behind us in third position.

Gary Swann was born in York on this date 30 years ago.

Football Beat

After welcoming all the visiting supporters of Leyton Orient I would like to turn my attention in this article to the more unpleasant side of football and our attempts to combat it. I am of course talking about Football Hooliganism for want of a better term. The only disorder involving Preston North End supporters this season that was of any substance is that which occurred after the Sheffield Wednesday fixture. I know that many of you have been unaware of the problems that occurred following that fixture. I am also aware that of those who were aware of it some were critical of the police decision to allow both sets of supporters to exit at the same time.

Briefly what happened was that when Sheffield Wednesday scored twice during the second half (sorry to remind you all) a number of so called Preston North End supporters began to make abusive and threatening gestures towards the away supporters in the Town End. This resulted in an increase in tension within the South East corner of the stadium leading to a small proportion of both sets of supporters throwing coins and spitting at each other upon the final whistle as they left the stadium. When outside the stadium two sets of supporters were separated by crowd control barriers, police horses and police officers. It has to be said that the vast majority of fans simply left the stadium in an orderly manner. Unfortunately an element of both sets of supporters took the opportunity to attempt to have a go at each other and seemed hell bent on physical confrontation. They were prevented from doing so by police officers who throughout the incident made a number of arrests. I am able to mention this matter now as on 2nd April 1992 the final cases relating to the incident were dealt with at Preston Magistrates Court. On that occasion a total of six men were convicted of offences under the Public Order Act. All were fined and each one was excluded from every football ground in the country for a period of 12 months. A further three men were convicted a few weeks ago of offences arising out of the same circumstances and two of those were also made the subject of exclusion orders.

I would now like to deal with a question that arises out of this incident. Why did we let supporters exit the stadium simultaneously? To answer the question I think we need to accept that the overwhelming majority of soccer fans are law abiding decent folk. Therefore as a starting point the police should not take a decision lightly that involves detaining 4,000 (or 400 for that matter) for any length of time without good reason. Add to this the advice we received from Sheffield police that, understandably due to The Hillsborough Disaster, Sheffield supporters are a touch more sensitive about being penned in a terrace and perhaps you can begin to understand our reasoning. We realised that a small number of people were showing hostility to each other during the game but we deployed resources to ensure the effective separation of supporters who left the stadium at the mouth of the alley leading to the rear of the Town End. In spite of the bad behaviour of a minority that segregation was not breached and public safety was at no time jeopardised although we have to accept that officers had their work cut out dealing with the trouble makers. On a positive note thousands of Sheffield Wednesday supporters were allowed on their way to catch the train, coach or to the comfort of their own vehicles and the awaiting football results on the radio. Our policy is not to allow the minority of trouble makers to interfere with the enjoyment, comfort and convenience of ordinary folk who want to enjoy football. Of course public safety is a priority and it may be that circumstances arise when we consider it wise to hold visitors back for a minimal period. Please understand that such decisions are difficult for the police and made with your interests at heart.

Having talked about the negative side of soccer I would like to end on a positive note. Football Hooliganism is not dead but I am convinced it is diminishing, especially at Preston North End. I am heartened by the support we have received from local magistrates in the cases we have put before them. They appear to be giving a clear message to the trouble-maker that disorder will not be tolerated. The board of directors at Preston North End have taken a decision to supplement court action by banning offenders from Deepdale. The best support we can receive however is from you, the fans and it is good to hear both the Official Supporters Club and the newly formed Independent Supporters Association giving us their support in our attempts to encourage the family atmosphere at Deepdale. Enjoy the Match

This afternoon's featured programme is for a friendly fixture played at Coventry back in 1956. Both Preston North End, then in Division One, and Coventry City, then in Division Three (South), had a free Saturday due to early exits in the F.A. Cup. Coventry City had gone out 1-0 at home to Exeter City in round one while Preston North End were defeated 5-2 at West Ham in round three.

Coventry City who were well placed in Division 3 (S) lost this particular friendly fixture by 4-1 to a stronger Preston North End side which was struggling in the lower regions of the First Division. Preston North End's goals were scored by Tom Finney 2 (1 pen.), Ray Evans and Bobby Foster.

The programme itself, printed in blue and white, has no decent reading material inside but nevertheless is still a good item to have in one's collection. The front cover of the programme shows the strip Coventry City wore at that time - no shirt sponsors or club badge. A typical 1950's programme with the date and the opponents missing from the front cover, something which is taken for granted these days.

This game was Coventry City's fourth friendly of the season, the others being against Birmingham, Burnley and Sheffield United, none of which were won. Preston North End themselves had only played two friendlies prior to this one, both at home, against Hibernian (0-4) and Falkirk (3-2).

Please let us know if you have any 1950's friendly programmes involving Preston North End away from home.
